INFOS

New Jersey born Clyde Kingrap (aka The Real Fake MC) is probably the freakiest MC on earth. His Flow is definitely influenced by old-school Hip-Hop masters, but The Real Fake MC declares that his major influence remain in P-Funk, Gogo and early Punk Rock.

For more than 15 years he's been grabbing mics and spreading funky vibes on stage & in collabs all around the world. His two 12" out on Favorite Recordings, Live & Survive & Hunt Ya Sunshine, and his 1st LP Rock It Up were produced by French producer Patchworks aka Mr President.

These two musicians have been dropping some tracks together for more than a decade, with always the same target: educate their love for Hip-Hop with jokin lyrics and Funk inspired beats played live with instruments.

They're back with a brand new LP, Future Funk Survivors out on Boogie Butt Records.

"Real fake MC what a name but he def has the old school flow with new school flavor. His voice kinda reminds me of Method man. The stand out tracks for on this one are Books in the Subway and Spider Rat, with Children of the Breaks. It's not often you hear some these days paying homage to the breaks and let alone using them. Props to Patchworks and Real Fake Mc for going down that path with this song. Freezin' is special to me cause it sounds a lot like The Message by Grandmaster Flash and the Furious Five. It is a tale that is still going on today: poverty in society." - Amir Abdullah
