INFOS

This Incredible afro-soul album was recorded in Italy in 1974 by the two Nigerians Ezy Hart and Isaac Olashugba.

Ezy is known for his vocals while Isaac for playing saxophone. They are ex-members of Fela Kuti's Hi-Life Jazz band, The Koola Lobitos and The Don Ezekiel Combination. After doing amazing collaborations together, recording a few Christian-Funk albums, and touring all over West Africa, these two finally settled in Italy where, after almost two decades, they not only toured through the all country, but also through Switzerland and Monte-Carlo.

The Funky Fella, a group of 12 top Italian musicians such as Maestro Leoni from Rifi records, produced three albums with Ezy and Isaac. The first one is called Soul Rock and is considered as a Soul masterpiece.

It contains the bomb track called "Bawagbe"; This track is very tuff, hypnotic afro-soul groove with ruff Yoruba chants, smacking congas, afro horns, funky breaks and a wicked percussion breakdown of rattling cowbells. It's a very unique collectors' item for the afro-funk lovers and more.

We're also including a bonus track called "I'm Ready For you", coming from the rare funky 7inch released in 1976.

Soul Rock is considered gold-dust, it's the Holy Grail of Afro-Italian funk.
