INFOS

Propriété Privée is the pinnacle of Congolese musician Sammy Massamba's style: a successful fusion of African and American music heritage, halfway between Franco and Otis Redding, Fela and Wilson Pickett, King Sunny Ade and Aretha Franklin.

Home made in Paris, self-released in 1987, with only 1000 copies hand distributed, the 4 tracks EP features the nastiest funk, boogie, soukous, rumba and electro pop soundclash the Eighties could offer.

Carefully restored, remastered and repackaged in total respect with its original release. The vinyl lacquer reissue was even made by its original author, the legendary André 'Dédé' Perriat. Sammy Massamba's life story is printed together with photos and liner notes on the inner sleeve of the 12". He still lives in France and is available for interviews, showcases, live shows and any sign of the gratitude he deserves.
