INFOS

After being compared with Mayer Hawthorne on his first world acclaimed album, Treat Me Right, John Milk is back with Paris Show Some Love, a piece of modern and engaged R&B.

Synthesis between J-Dilla and Prince, John Milk delivers a genuine and solid recording based on real to real tape machines and electronic sounds

Previously working as artistic director of his own record label (Ka Records) and collaborating as a singer with Patchworks and Blundetto (Heavenly Sweetness, Favorite Recording) John Milk is now on a new vibe, merging all kind of recording processes, live recordings on reel to reel 8 tracks Tascam, introducing beatmaking and hip-hop culture with numerous machines, samplers and keys ... a musical patchwork which has been open to all kinds of experimentations.

Songs were composed on top of instrumentals. The creative process is about delivering the right energy once the music transmits the appropriate atmosphere.

All songs are focus on having catchy hooks as much as conscious lyrics.

Paris Show Some Love is a message album. Creating music in the city of love during one of the most violent year for a longtime...this contradiction has been the fuel to his creativity.

The song « Paris Show Some Love » is specially dedicated to the tragic night of november 13th 2015. John Milk offers a personal vision on our capacity to find our way and moves beyond the lines and create.
